

Syma,
It is most unfortunate that I didn't get to know someone as charming as you better than I did. I take it for granted that you are a very nice person and someone who needs to be around people and someone who enjoys company. I am sorry that I did not try to know you better, because I am sure we would have made great friends. It is really too late now, because in 2 weeks I will be gone, but if I can leave here knowing that we are friends, my cause will not be in vain. Good Luck in everything you pursue. The most charming in life. I wish we could have known each other better

I was wrong when I said I had to think about what to write in your yearbook. Really, your yearbook is probably the easiest one to write in because you really choose a great person. If I had to choose one person who could practically make friends with anyone it would be you. I enjoyed having you as a friend and was really glad that you were with me in Miss Ferris's room. That was my favorite class. I always looked forward to it because you were there and I could talk to you. So to a really great person. Good luck.
Love,

You're one of the few people in the junior class whom I really admire. You're more important than I am. You're very friendly and sincere. I like you as you are, so don't change. As though you may be left out on AHS. Don't feel because the ones who work now really succeed in the end. Love, Nancy

Syma Syma,

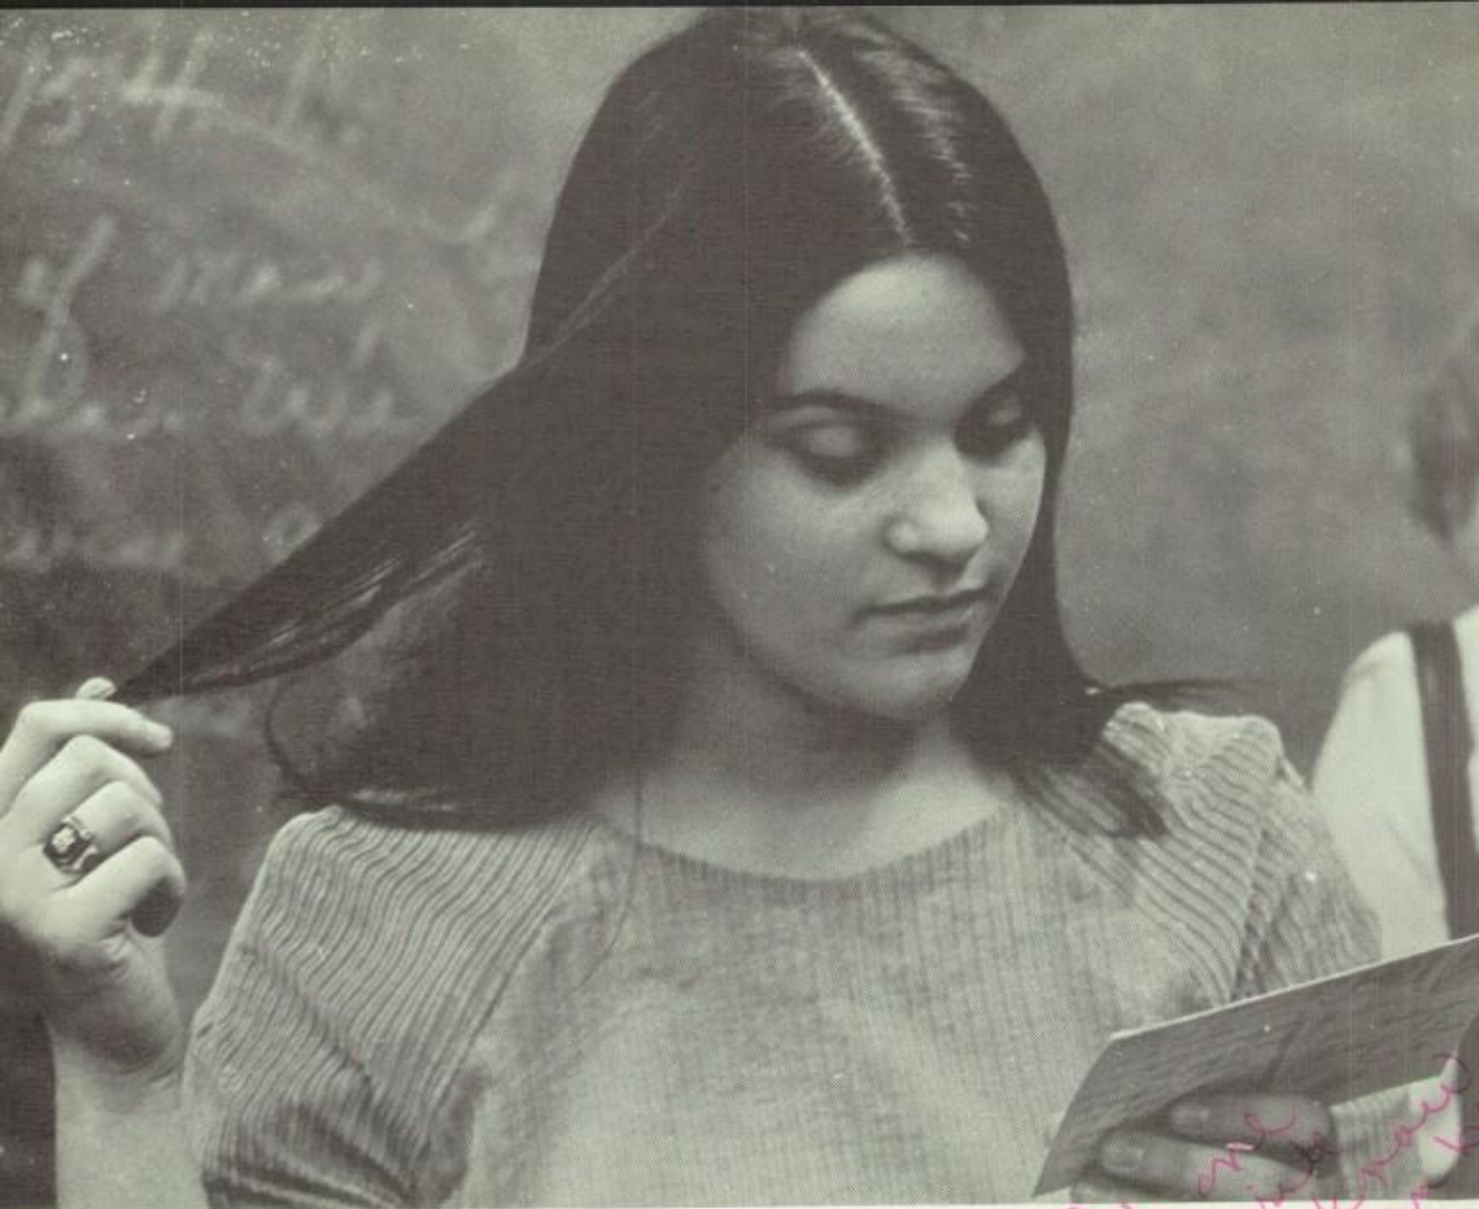

Here I am reminiscing about all the wonderful, sad, and beautiful things we've done together this year. There's just too many of them to list here on a page of your yearbook. Our friendship has come to mean something very sincere to me, and I only hope our friendship will always be something to cherish.

I have learned from you, and I hope you've learned something from me.

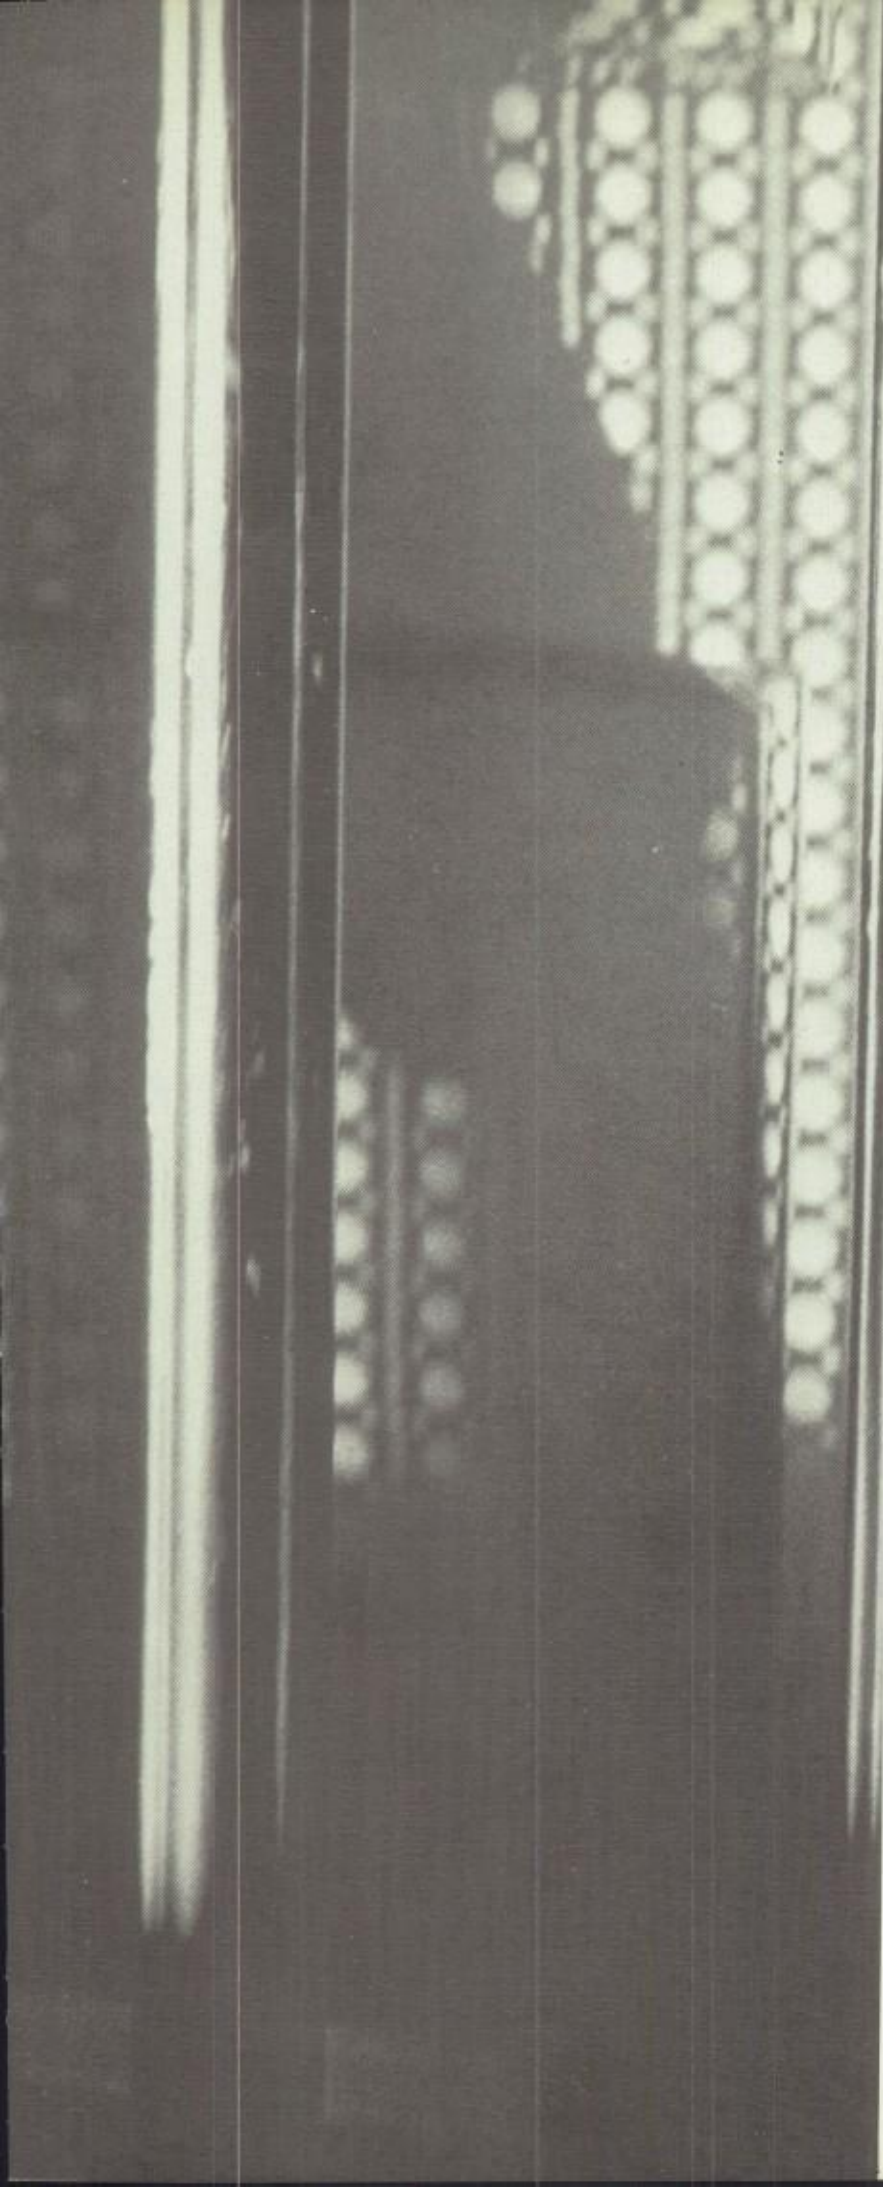

You are constantly the person to be admired and one who people will love forever. You have certainly earned the ~~not~~ only the title of "President of Delta Psi" But also "Most popular of Albany High." You have so much - and you deserve every bit of it, and don't you ever forget that. I don't want you ever to change because if you do, I just will not love you anymore. But obviously that would be a ~~a~~ mucho impossible. You have told me before that I am honest with my words. Well, you're right this time. I mean every little word. You deserve a long, fulfilling life of happiness, love, and peace and I hope you come to attain all 3. If your year has been as wonderful as mine has been, your very fortunate. You know I consider myself really ~~to~~ lucky to have someone like you to turn to. Best of everything and you know I love you — Cyndy '70

Symma
 you're one of my favorite people. I don't know how one person can be so kind and sweet. We have to keep in touch next year. or else I'll really be upset. more than I am now if that's possible Best of life

 Mary

I'm so glad we got to know each other this year.
I've known you since 5th grade. But only got to know you when we talked for at least an hour on the phone. It was good to know that we actually had been friends all that time.
For you, I can only wish the very best of everything, for you bring happiness to everyone.

I miss you, for

Dear Syma (Syma Page), Well this was the year I met Syma (and Janet). It was nice with Janet but now I'm confused about our relationship. It was like best thing that ever happened to me. I think you're one of the warmest girls I've ever met.
 I know we can have a great relationship even if we're just friends, just going out, or even more than that. I know I'll always think of you as such a wonderful girl. I know really know what it means to love someone as a friend. Because I love you so much in certain ways I could learn to love you in many other ways I'm sure.
 We've grown so close in such a short time, it's only been about a month and a half. Just think how close we could be at this time next year. I hope we will. I don't think I need to say that whatever you do you'll succeed. Because you know you can and you already have in many ways. I think some of the things you said were because you know

Dear Syma,

Where else should I sign I sign your book except on a page with flowers, the things that have meant so much to us.

~~But~~ Some of the greatest pleasures you get out of life is in meeting new people + making new friends. I guess by meeting you, I've had my share of pleasures for this year + even more. Between flowers, + giggles + grins + pin ball + ice cream + cooked cabbage + the Association, we have grown to know each other really well. May it never ~~end~~ end.

Love

Dear Syna,

For someone who is a clown, it's hard to write something serious, but here goes. It has truly been a pleasure knowing you, for you ~~are~~ a great kid

I better sign off before I cry.

Love,
Stu

Syna - a good friend
May your life be like arithmetic, Joy added, sorrows subtracted & Love undivided.

Love always Marina

dyona,

To a really sweet kid.
We have been friends for a number of years and I hope we can remain friends. I know that our meetings are going to be fun because you are president.

Dear,

Cathy

Dear Syma,

To one of the greatest sisters a sorority can have! You've helped me solve a lot of my problems, even if they weren't major. Remember the great times we've had together. I hope we stay friends always!

Love,
Em

Dear Dharma)
To a real cute gal, remember the we had an Atudy, I'll always love you. Have fun in life Love you always Ray
XXXX

Dear Vima,
Well, a year's gone and lots of us. We've both of us. We've lived a different life than we were used to.
I don't want to be a person like you as a friend.
I wish you a great year. Have a great year!

6/11/70

Dear Symma,
Please don't think this sounds like the typical stereotyped yearbook lines - I mean what I have to say is sincerely. You are a really ^{good} ~~person~~ person - sweet, generous and understanding. I would wish you luck but with these qualities I really don't think you'll need it. Thanks so much for being so nice. Everyone needs friends like you.
P.S. I won't forget it was your plugging that I made it possible for me to go to State!

Love, Betty

Dear Symma Faye,
Well, here we are with another year completed. We've both gone through alot together. ~~and I~~ ^{even though some} ~~made it~~ ^{last week} times I was in a real "bitchy" mood. I admit that I did think when I was about you - but it wasn't really a bad way. I thought twice about you because I really do love you and I don't ever want anything to come between our friendship.
I hope that you feel the same way, because I always will.

Love ya,
Gail

Syma-

You one of the nicest girls I have ever met in Albany High. I hope we can always be friends. Our friendship means a lot to me.
See you next year

Love,

Tyler.

Syma,
I haven't known you very well before this year but I think that you are the sweetest girl I know. Please. Stay as sweet as you are. I'll see you next year. Good luck forever.

Love,
Phil

Dear Syma,

I really don't know where to begin this speech all I know is its from one beautiful girl to a prettier one. Your so great and I'll never be able to forget our friendship cause it will never end. Syma, you know that I look at you as a sister I actually have none. Again I repeat last year by saying you've gone through alot of heartache with me and before Jim married there will be many more problems. The reason you mean so much to me is because you are always open to me and want to help me. I really and truly (oppo) truly love you as a sister and I never ever want to loose the slightest bit of our friendship. I hope I'll always mean something to you and on my wedding day, before I say "I do and HP is next to me I'll turn to you my & maid-of-honor and say, I told you so" I'll always love you and cherish our friendship you're so pretty

Love,
Janet

Sigma
Guess what.
I'm going to become a chemistry teacher, and I want to be just like Mr. Stockbauer.
Isn't that nice? I wish you the best of luck in the summer and will be here as my next year (hopefully) to give you your book again.
Great
Best of luck
Dylan
